

MAURETANIA OFF WITH NOTABLES IN EARLY MORNING

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt and Sir Edward Hain Among Saloon Passengers.

His name was not on the passenger list, but "Doc" Cook of Brooklyn and the Arctic regions was on the Cunarder Mauretania when she sailed for Europe at 1 o'clock this morning. The "Doc" was smiling and happy and said he was going to lecture in Germany in April and May and attend any geographical congresses that might be going on anywhere.

The pier was thronged with society folk in evening dress seeing friends off on the liner, and after the "All aboard" signal the big ship resembled the reception room of a mammoth hotel. The new sailing hour has produced a new social function, and apparently it is much enjoyed.

Among the nearly two hundred first class passengers sailing on the Mauretania were Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt and Sir Edward Hain. Others were the Count and Countess Molke, Count F. G. de Cernov, Count and Countess Lutzow, Sir Edward Hain, Heinrich Heine, the tenor, who made his first appearance at the Metropolitan Opera House this season, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Widener of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith of Boston, William Watson, the English poet, and Mrs. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Penoyer of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. H. de Randen, Mrs. L. Walkenstein of Brooklyn, Charles Patterson, J. H. Palmer of Quebec, H. P. Perkins and the Rev. John MacNeill of Toronto.

There were three bridal couples, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Warner Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kuhn. All have planned honeymoon trips in England and Germany.

Poe of Mosquitoes Is Dead.
Dr. John Bernhard Smith, State Entomologist of New Jersey, since 1894, who did more than any other man in a scientific way toward ending the mosquito pest in that State, died yesterday in his home in New Brunswick of Bright's disease.

Milady's Toilet Table By Mms. D'MILLE

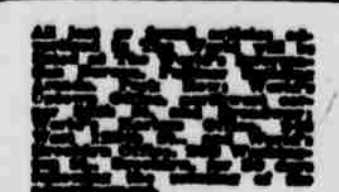

The electric needle can be resorted to for the removal of superfluous hairs, but the operation is expensive and requires a first-class operator. Wild hairs can be quickly and easily removed at home by the application of delicate cream. Mix enough powdered talc with water and cover the hairy surface, apply and wipe off after two or three minutes; then wash the skin and the hairs will be gone.

A clear, soft and satiny complexion can be achieved by rubbing the face, neck and arms gently each morning with a solution made by dissolving an original package of macestone in a half pint of witch hazel. This is a wonderful complexion beautifier and prevents growth of hair.

To reduce swellings, astringent inflammation, to stop aches in back or joints, to relieve pain from strain, bruises, sore muscles or any cause, apply Mother's Mace before retiring, rubbing in well. It is used for neuritis, headache, rheumatism, lumbago, etc. The world never saw its equal as a pain reliever.

Don't catch cold washing your head. To make a dry shampoo that cleans the scalp and hair, put a cupful of cornmeal in a fruit jar, add contents of an original package of Mother's Mace and shake well together. Well through the hair. It will make the hair light, fluffy and beautifully lustrous.
